

RACER CONTRACT

We are excited that you will be attending a Peninsula Competition Downhill Ski Race Camp. For many young people, a camp experience is often one of the highlights of their teenage years. In order to insure the safety and well being of all participants, we are asking all camp participants and their parent/guardians to sign the below contract. Failure to live up to this contract may mean you being asked to leave camp and travel home at your own expense.

I agree to be respectful of all adult authority.

I agree not to bring any drugs, alcohol or weapons.

I agree to attend all meetings and activities.

I agree to stay out of all rooms assigned to the opposite sex.

I agree to stay in my assigned room after room checks each night.

I agree to socialize/fraternize in common areas as designated by camp directors (lobby, lodge, breakfast/lecture room).

I agree to respect the personal property of other camp participants.

I agree to treat all members of the camp with respect and dignity.

I agree to eat properly, attend all meals planned and be responsible for a healthy caloric intake

I agree that helmets are required to be worn on the mountain at any and all times I am affiliated with Peninsula Competition.

I agree that inverted aerials are NOT allowed at any and all times I am affiliated with Peninsula Competition.

I have read and understood these Peninsula Competition rules and regulations and will abide by them and will accept the consequences of non-compliance as listed.
